Will of Isaac Quintard 1714

In the name of God Amen I Isaac Quintard of Stamford being sick and weak in body but sound in mind and memory, praised be God for it, do by these present revoke and recind and make null and void all former and other wills and testaments by me heretofore made, and further make and ordain just and thereof this to be my last will and testament in manner and form as followeth. ----------

After this frail life I commit my soul into the hands of God in Christ, and my body to a decent burial at the discretion of my executrix hereafter mentioned, and as to my worldly possessions, after my just debts and funeral expenses paid and discharged, I dispose of the same as followeth----------

I do hereby give bequeath and devise unto my dear and loving wife Jane one third part of all my goods chattels and moneys which I shall have in my hand at the time of my decease and two hundred pounds out of the debts which I shall then have oweing to me, all the aforesaid goods chattels and moneys hereby devised to her to be at her own dispose forever,----------

Then I do hereby give, grant and devise unto my said wife Jane my dwelling house in New York with all the authorised yard and garden priviledges thereof or thereunto in any wise appertaining, to be to her and her assigns during her natural life and after her decease the remainder thereof unto my three children Isaac Peter and Mary to each of them one third part thereof to them and their heirs forever, then I do hereby give and bequeath unto my two sons Isaac and Peter to each of them one hundred pounds out of the debts which shall be oweing to me at my decease, and this to advance them in a suitable proportion to my loving daughter Mary Morin to whom I have already given considerable. Then I give and bequeath unto my three children aforesaid, Isaac Peter and Mary all the rest and residue of my estate real and personal to be to each of them one third part to them and their heirs forever. Provided and I do hereby order that before my said wife and children divide the goods and chattels I shall leave at my decease according to the tenor of this my last will and testament Ten pounds thereof shall be given and delivered unto the French Church in New York for the use of the poor of said French Church in New York, finally I do nominate and appoint my dear and loving wife Jane executrix, and my loving son in law Samuel Morin executor of this my last will and testament and in witness of the afore written as my last will and testament I have hereunto set my hand and seal this sixth day of November in the first year of the reign of George of Great Britain and King Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, before sealing hereof I further add that all the estate afore in this will given my two sons Isaac and Peter I give the use thereof unto my loving wife until they shall severally come to be of the age of twenty one years to enable her to educate them, and at their several ages
